DEDICATION

As you can see, this year's Town Report is being dedicated to our new Post Office---welcome to Danville!

Back in the 1920's, Danville boasted three Post Offices. The one in North Danville was located in the former Salina Sanborn house, now owned by Joseph Barch, on Main Street. The second one was in the small building directly across from the Danville Chenille Shop, which was then called the South Danville Post Office. And the third was located in the Collins-Dimond Store, which was on the site of the present William Post residence at the intersection of Kingston Road and Main Street--and later moved to Collins' Store (which, in turn, became Gorton's Store) on Main Street.

Following George Gorton's retirement as Post Master, a trailer was set up next to the Fire Association Hall for our mail delivery. This was later transferred to East Hampstead, and later again moved back to Danville--next to Town Hall.

So.....It has been a long wait for a beautiful building. Plans are underway at the present time to service the rural mail delivery areas of Danville from this new Post Office, and maybe, within the next year or so, all residents of Danville will be able to use the Zip Code number--0 3 8 1 9.

WARRANT

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Danville in the County of Rockingham in said State, qualified to vote in Town Affairs:

You are hereby notified to meet at the Danville Fire Association Hall in said Danville, on Tuesday, the fourteenth day of March, next at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon to act upon the following subjects:

1. To choose all necessary Town Officers for the year ensuing. (By ballot)

2. To choose all necessary School District Officers for the ensuing year. (By ballot)

3. To see if the Town will vote to adopt the Amendment to the existing Danville Zoning Ordinance as proposed by the Danville Planning Board as follows:

Revise Article IV.A.1.d., Permitted Uses and Restrictions, Residential/Agricultural Zone, Principle Uses and Restrictions, to read:

d. Multiple-unit dwellings are allowed in this district under the following conditions:

1) For lots greater than twelve (12) acres, multiple-unit dwellings are allowed provided they meet all the requirements of Article IV.A.3., "Cluster Development".

2) For parcels consisting of twelve (12) acres or less that are lots of record at the time of passage of this ordinance, duplex (two unit) dwellings are allowed provided that:

a. Each duplex unit will require a minimum lot or site size of three (3) acres exclusive of roads.

b. Each lot or site shall have a minimum frontage requirement of two hundred feet (200') on a Class I through Class V highway provided, however, that non-conforming lots of record at the time of passage of this ordinance which have adequate area but do not have two hundred feet (200') of frontage may be used provided that the Planning Board finds that adequate access exists to such lots for all public safety equipment.

c. No dwelling unit shall be located within fifty feet (50') of abutting property lines or closer than thirty feet (30') to existing or proposed roadways.

d. Off-street parking shall be provided for each dwelling unit at the minimum rate of two (2) parking spaces per unit plus one (1) visitors space for the duplex unit. The area shall be paved and provide adequate back-up radius (22 feet wide for 90 degree angle parking; 18 feet wide for 60 degree angle parking and 12 feet wide for 45 degree angle parking).

e. If the development is to be regulated by an Association, all procedures and/or requirements for the Association agreement will be described in Article IV.A.3., "Cluster Development".

f. The dwelling units and lots shall conform to all other Danville Zoning Ordinances not specifically described in the foregoing.

3) Multiple-unit dwellings shall not exceed thirty feet (30') in height from the lowest point of junction between foundation and ground level.

4) If, in the opinion of the approving authority, development of an area or lot as multi-unit is deemed unsuitable due to health, safety, or lack of sufficient protection from existing residences to allow harmonious development, the authority has the option to require conventional, single family development of that area.

Revise Article IV.A.3.e.2)a., Permitted Uses and Restrictions, Residential/Agricultural Zone, Cluster Development, General Requirements, to read:

a. At least twelve (12) contiguous acres in a residential/agricultural zone.

4. To see if the Town will vote to adopt the Amendment to the existing Danville Zoning Ordinance as proposed by the Danville Planning Board as follows:

Revise Article IV.A.3.b., Permitted Uses and Restrictions, Residential/Agricultural Zone, Cluster Development, Purpose to read:

b. Purpose

The purpose of this Cluster Development ordinance is to encourage flexibility in the design and development of land, while promoting its most efficient use, as well as preserving natural features and open space.

Revise Article IV.A.3.d.4), Permitted Uses and Restrictions, Residential/Agricultural Zone, Cluster Development, Definitions, to read:

4) Mandatory Home Owners Association: For developments in which real estate or improvements are to be owned in common by all or some of the land owners in the development, a private non-profit corporation, association, or other non-profit legal entity established by the developer to manage and support the activities of the cluster development. Membership in the said association shall be mandatory for property owners and made a required covenant in any deed issued or passed. It shall provide voting and use rights in the common area when applicable and may charge to cover expenses which may include tax liabilities of the common area, recreational or utility facilities. Articles of Association or Incorporation must be acceptable to the Planning Board and approved by Town Counsel and any other municipal, county, state agency, body or department required by law to approve of the same.

Revise Article IV.A.3.e.9) and 11), Permitted Uses and Restrictions, Residential/Agricultural Zone, Cluster Development, General Requirements, to read:

9) Protection of Common Land: For developments with property owned by more than one individual or entity, open space, common areas, common facilities, private roadways and other features within the cluster development shall be protected by covenants running with the land and shall be conveyed by the property owners to a Homeowners Association, or, if mutually agreed upon, may be deeded to the Town, so as to guarantee the following:

Items a. through f. remain unchanged.

11) Minimum Common Space and Lot Size: For a cluster development without interior lot lines, the common space need not be delineated on the plan. Its area shall be calculated as twenty thousand (20,000) square feet per dwelling unit, excluding dwelling units and roads. For a cluster development with interior lot lines, the square footage of the individual lots, excluding the dwelling unit on the lot, can be subtracted from the twenty thousand (20,000) square feet to meet the common space requirement.

PLANNING BOARD 1988

Located in New Hampshire's high growth southern tier, Danville is sharing the same growing pains that our neighbors are experiencing. Our towns high growth continued in 1988, with the Planning Board reviewing nineteen proposals for subdividing 523 acres of land with the potential of creating an additional 198 residences in Danville. As of the end of 1988, we had approved ten of these proposals affecting 108 acres. Danville is fortunate to have a completed Master Plan in place, an approved wetlands ordinance and, approved at the 1988 Town Meeting, a Cluster Zone ordinance. With these tools and the continued dedication and diligence of the various boards and Town officials, we hope to minimize the impact of this growth through orderly planned development.

While we have not, as yet, approved a subdivision under the Cluster Zone ordinance, several proposals have been presented. The Planning Board supports the cluster concept since it will allow for more open space to be retained in proposed developments while allowing the developer to build to existing residential density requirements. We have found, however, that a further refinement of the ordinance is needed and will be included in the 1989 Town Warrant. Two changes are proposed: one will allow for individual lot ownership and the second will remove the mandatory Homeowners Association requirement in the case where there is no common property needed to be controlled and maintained by an association. Also proposed for the 1989 Town Warrant will be revisions of our existing multiple-unit dwelling ordinance. The Planning Board's goals in proposing these changes are: (1) provide clarification in the implementation of the ordinance; (2) move all multi-unit building proposals greater than two dwelling units (duplex) into the cluster zone ordinance where much greater control and protection for abutters can be provided; and (3) allow only duplex units on three acre lots provided, however, that proposed subdivisions are for existing lots of record of twelve acres or less.

The Board feels that with passage of these articles, multiple-unit dwelling proposals can be incorporated fairly and equitably into our neighborhoods.

The Board would like to thank the Rockingham Planning Commission, the Board of Selectmen and the Conservation Commission for their continued cooperation with us throughout the year.

REPORT OF CEMETERY TRUSTEES

After a "no help" problem before Memorial Day, things got better. John Caldwell did a good job. The Town mowers were repaired, etc.

No work was done on the Old Meeting House Cemetery. Lack of funds. However, Chet Walker donated several large loads of fill for which we thank him. We also found out the vote to use part of the lot money for expansion is illegal. So, money must be raised in the budget.

TOWN FOREST 1988 REPORT

Not much action on wood this year--oil is plentiful again. We only sold five cords. The road needs gravel across the swamp; it is nearly under water due to the beavers near Bob Kent's place.

LAND PROTECTION TASK FORCE

The Danville Task Force was created at Town Meeting 1988 to work with the Trust for N. H. Lands to purchase or secure donations of conservation land. This past summer the Trust for N. H. Lands was instrumental in acquiring large tracts of land in the North Country.

This past year, we've met regularly to lay the groundwork for the program. We have identified three areas of Danville which have conservation value. We've sent letters to landowners notifying them of our interest. We have followed several leads, but so far no luck.

We are fortunate that Danville has retained its rural character. We have large tracts of woodlands, several ponds, and varied wildlife. But this varied landscape will not remain as it is now by chance. You can help preserve some of our forestland by donating or selling a portion of your land to the Town or State for conservation use. If interested, contact any one of us on the Task Force.

It has been a very busy year at the library. Thirty-six adults and ninety-two children have registered for library cards, including all the members of the first grade class who did not already have cards when the class visited the library during Childrens Book Week.

The librarian has represented the library at all N. H. State Library Conferences, workshops, Forum, as well as the Merri-Hill-Rock Co-Operative.

The elementary and junior high school librarians are now alerting the area towns public libraries when classes start projects. This has been a great help to the staff.

The small, but extremely dedicated Friends of the Library Group sponsored Easter and Election Day bake sales, a table at the Firemens Picnic and parade Flea Market with book sale, sold Halloween decorations, sponsored a public meeting with Hawke Historical Society, and a 5% day at Custeaus. They applied for and received a MacArthur Grant for 85 PBS videos. With the monies earned from all the above named events, they have purchased for the library a stepstool, books on tapes, book marks, and a revolving rack for the video display. They also purchased two tickets which admit two persons each to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. These tickets may be borrowed overnight by any adult registered borrower. The Friends and other volunteers staffed the Library on Saturday mornings during the school year. Anyone interested in the welfare of the Library is invited to join the group which meets at 9:30 a.m. on the first Wednesday of the month at the Library.

The Library is located on Colby Road. Library cards are free to all residents. Hours open are Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 3-8:30 p.m.; Wednesday from 9 a.m. to Noon; Saturday from 9:30 to noon. The Staff, Deborah Meigs, Librarian; Dorothy Billbrough, Assistant; and Ruth Healey, Aide, invite you to stop by.

POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORT 1988

As our Town and the surrounding towns continue to grow, so have the requirements and responsibilities of this department. As shown in the statistics at the end of this report there were 881 calls for service answered by this department in 1988. This figure represents an increase of approximately 30% over the total for 1987. Because of this, I have both increased and realigned patrol hours in hope the greater visibility would be a deterrent to criminal activity. Again this year I am asking for your continued cooperation in reporting any suspicious incidents and reporting them as soon as possible. We would rather be called and not needed than be needed and not called.

As in past years, members of the Department are continuing to take advantage of the training opportunities offered by the N. H. Police Standards and Training Council with 4 currently taking correspondence courses.

Again in 1988 a large number of traffic citations and warnings were issued. With the increase in traffic on our roads, I am pleased to see a slight drop in the number of motor vehicle accidents investigated in the past year. For this decrease, I would like to thank you for your cooperation, and ask for a continuing effort to strive for a lower number in the coming year. PLEASE DRIVE SAFELY.

1988 ANIMAL CONTROL REPORT

The Animal Control Department had a very bad problem with dogs running at large. This Department also had a problem with people not letting me know when they have lost their dogs.

I have had some dogs almost a week, before anyone calls to claim them. Please let me know when your dog is lost and notify other towns too.

This Department will have another rabies clinic in April.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

As shown in the 1988 list of services, we had an approximate 30% increase in requests of assistance from our growing community. An example of our growth is indicated by the number of streets in our Town--there are now 73.

To plan ahead for the future expansion of Danville, we must work together with other Town Departments in anticipating the emergency response capabilities required to meet these ever increasing demands.

Your support of the Capital Reserve for "Future Fire Truck Purchases" is a responsible step toward achieving this goal.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE TRUST FUNDS DANVILLE, N.H. - YEAR ENDING DEC. 1, 1988

Considering only those funds held for the entire year, the approximate yield on investments was 8.1%. This yield of 8.1% compares with 8.0% for 1987 and 8.6% for 1986.

In order to insure that the trust funds and capital reserve accounts are fully covered by insurance, the assets were distributed among three local banks so that not more than $100,000 is in any one bank. These banks are: the Plaistow Co-operative Bank, the Rockingham County Trust Co., and the Derry Bank and Trust Co. In addition we have a checking account and a safe deposit box at the Plaistow Bank and Trust Co.

The New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration ruled that it was improper to maintain a capital reserve account for general cemetery maintenance. Therefore the sums that were contributed to this account have been transferred to the cemetery care funds of the donors for the maintenance of their specific cemetery lots.

Also the Attorney's General Office recommended that the Friends of the Colby Library Capital Reserve Account be held as a regular trust fund. This change has been made.

Five new perpetual cemetery care funds were established in 1988:

Laurence J. & Jeanine Wert
Richard F. & Natalie E. Demaine
Gerald & Lillian Seaver
John L. & Sheila Bernaby
George & Barbara Gorton

The 1988 capital reserve account appropriations, voted at the March 1988 town meeting were not received before the books were closed on Dec. 1, 1988. These amounts will appear in the 1989 report.
